Philo

Problem Solving

Color: GREEN

Symbol:

Career Pathway: Natural Resources

Philo is awesome at solving problems. People in all different careers solve problems every day, too!

Draw a line from each career person to the problem they solve while on the job.

Police Officer

Hair Stylist

Surgeon

College Professor

Firefighter

Chef

One of his students isn't understanding the lesson, so he comes up with a new way to teach it.

His customer's hair came out lighter than she wanted. He has to dye it again darker.

The restaurant is out of a main ingredient, so they create new recipes for the night.

One of her patients comes in with a badly broken arm. She has to focus to perform a hard surgery.

She sees people are locked out of their car. She uses a special tool to help them get in.

There is a big fire with a pet inside. They stay low to the ground and help the pet get out safe.

Amelia

Anti-Bullying & Acceptance

Color: ORANGE

Symbol:

Career Pathway: Industrial Technology &
Engineering

Amelia helps keep the peace by showing everyone how to accept others for who they are and how to use anti-bullying strategies.

In order to accept other people, it helps if we understand people different from us. Use the internet to learn about a holiday that you do not celebrate.

What holiday did you learn about?

When is this holiday celebrated?

Who usually celebrates this holiday?

Draw a symbol of this holiday.

Draw what it looks like to celebrate this holiday.

Amelia and Philo are walking in the park one day and see a girl named Naomi crying. Philo asks her, "What's wrong?"

Naomi responds, "That girl on the swing keeps following me around and telling me I am a baby and can't go on the swings, the slide or anything else! When I try, she blocks me and says, 'Babies can't go on this!'"

Amelia responds, "I am so sorry this is happening to you."

Philo adds, "Yeah, this is not okay, and we won't just stand by and let it happen."

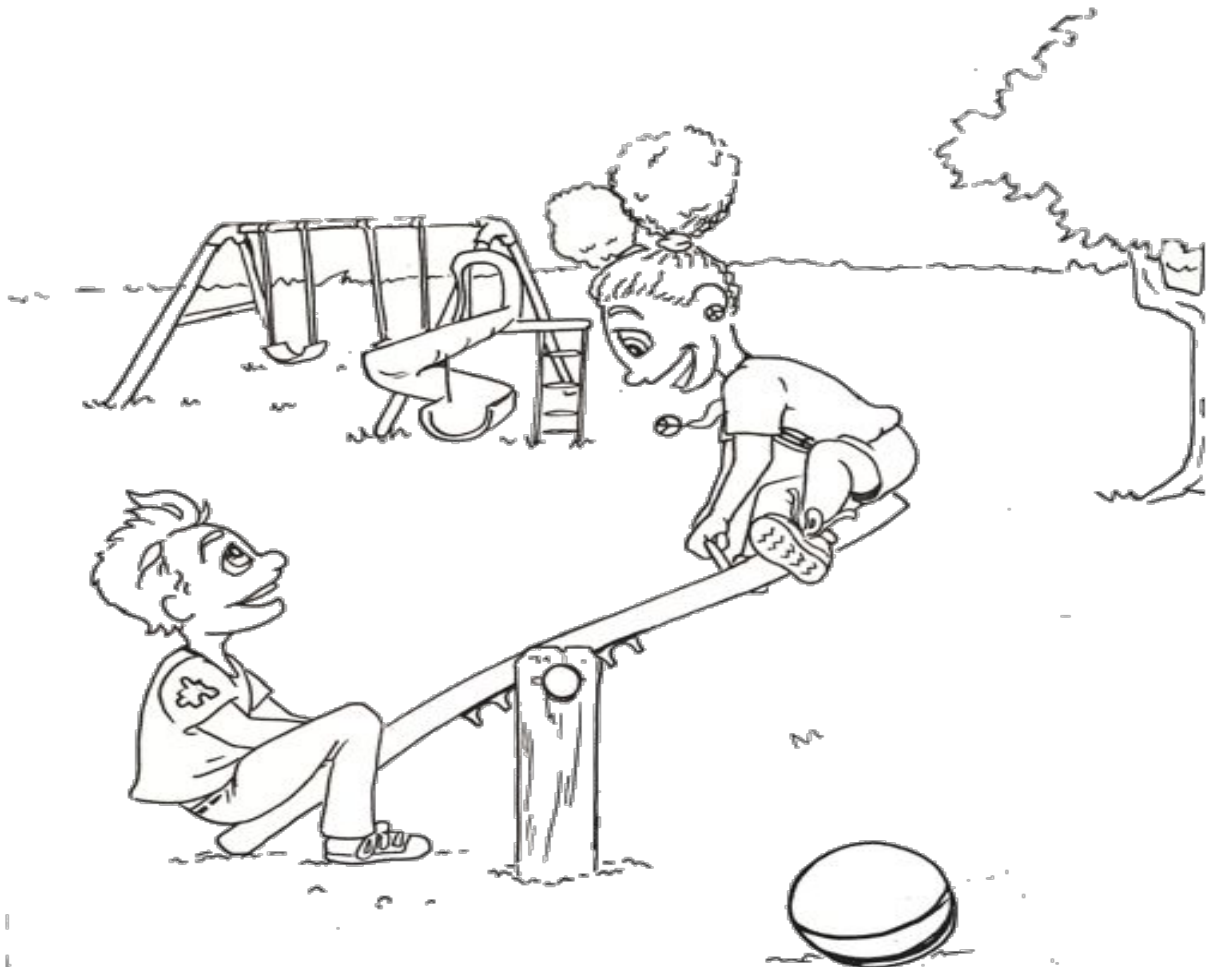

Amelia says, "This is mean behavior, and Philo and I can figure out a way to make it stop. Right, Philo?"

"Right!" replies Philo.

Amelia decides she will be a good bystander by standing up for Naomi. She uses her anti-bullying skills to talk to the girl on the swings about accepting others for who they are, being nice and kind and treating people fairly. Having Philo there makes it easier to stand up to the girl.

Philo then suggests they use one of his tips to finish resolving this conflict. He thinks walking away to go play together on the jungle gym will work, and Naomi agrees.

Naomi smiles and tells Amelia and Philo, "Thanks for being on my TEAM!"

Paco

Paco and Harper are in the library and the librarian is carrying a large pile of books when she can't hold them anymore and drops them all over the floor.

Harper loves to help people. She rushes over and says, "Here, let me help you pick those up!"

Paco says, "You know, there could be an easier way to move those heavy books! Let's make a positive change!"

The librarian says, "That's a great idea, but what can I use to move the books?"
Paco looks around and has an idea. "What about that book shelf with wheels?"

The librarian looks at it and says, "Paco, that is a great idea. Thanks! I will make this positive change and use the book shelf from now on!"

Career Pathway: Arts & Communication

Leadership is the KEY to the house! It uses all of the foundations we've talked about in this book. Connect the dots for a fun item!

Ruby is sitting in a classroom looking sad. Lamar is standing next to her.

“Hi, Ruby. How are you?”

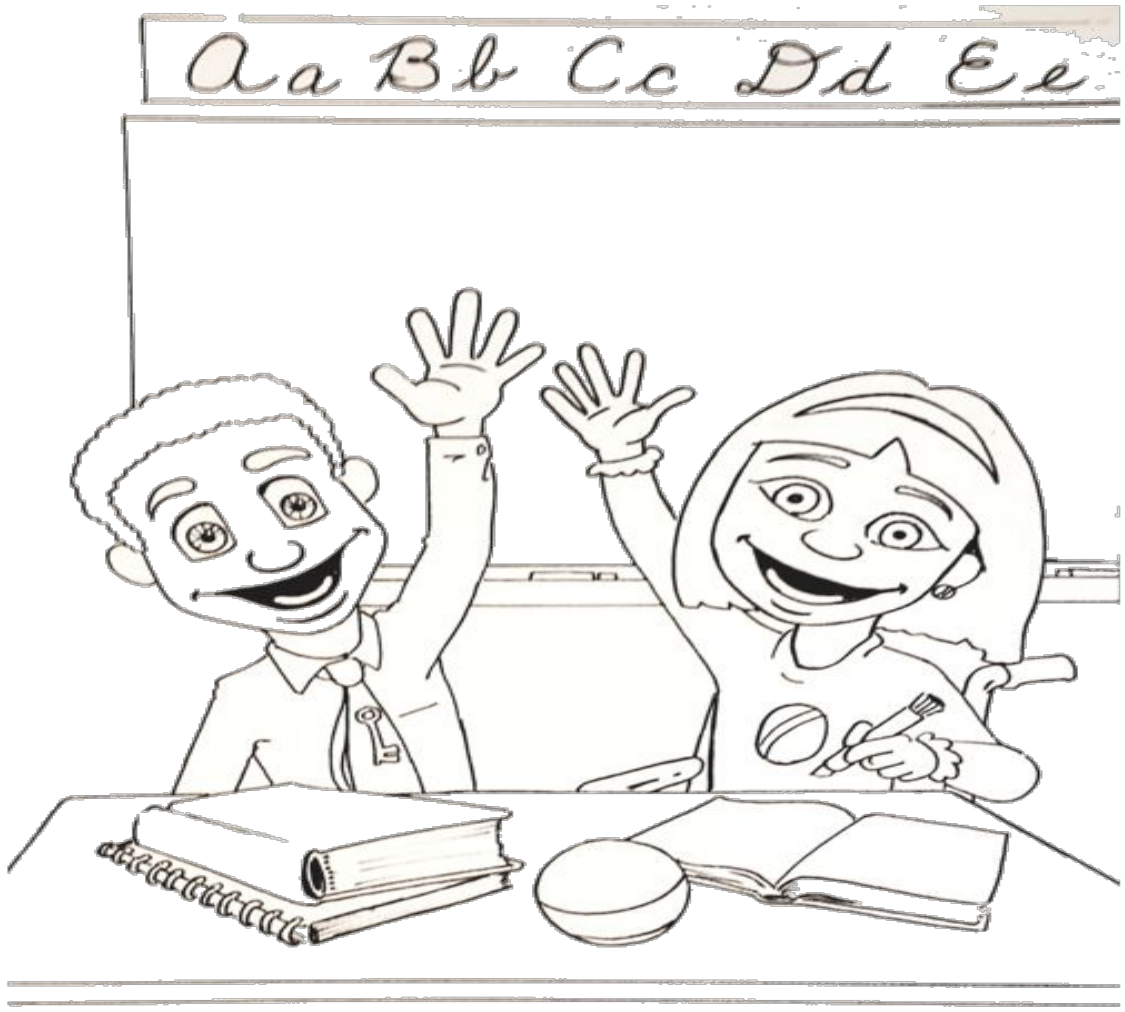

“I’m not doing so great, Lamar. I just got a bad grade on a quiz.”

“Oh no, Ruby, I’m sorry to hear that. What can I do to help?”

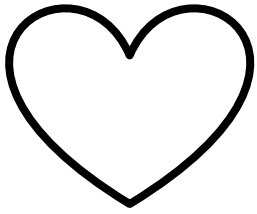

“Thanks, Lamar. I am going to make a plan. I’ll bounce back from this! You’re a good leader- where do you think I can find help?”

“Our TEAM can help! Harper can help you with problems you don’t understand, Paco will help you make positive changes, Philo can give you some ideas for problem solving and Amelia is a great friend to talk to! Let’s go find them!”

“Thanks, Lamar!”
